

Parish School Forum

Purpose of the Parish School Forum

The Parish School Forum provides a structure to enable parent, teachers, students, school leaders and parish members to meet their ecclesial and educational responsibilities for partnership and community.

Goals

1. enriching families through support and education in the religious and educational development of their children, so that they may more fully become “domestic Church”;
2. developing understanding and commitment to the parish school’s Catholic identity and mission by all parish school community members;
3. enhancing the communication and partnership between parish, school and family;
4. collaborating with the Lismore Diocese Education Board;
5. consulting all members of the parish school community in decisions affecting the ethos, culture and curriculum of parish school life.
